

New Membership Categories and Fees (as of January 2022)

Regular Membership: The current one-time initiation fee for Regular Members is $2,030.40 which is due when the New Member Application is submitted along with Sponsor letters and signatures. In addition, members pay monthly dues of $112.80. At the option of the member, the monthly fee may be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly.

Military Membership: To qualify for a Military Membership, you must be on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, stationed within the on the Monterey Peninsula area, and at least 21 years of age. The current one-time initiation fee is $2,030.40 which is deferred for three years. The New Member Application is submitted along with Sponsor letters and signatures. In addition, members pay monthly dues of $112.80. At the option of the member, the monthly fee may be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly.

Non-Resident Membership: To qualify for a Non-Resident Membership, you must be at least 21 years of age and permanently reside further than sixty statute miles in a direct line from the MPYC Clubhouse. The current one-time initiation fee for Non-Resident Members is $2,030.40 which is due when the New Member Application is submitted along with Sponsor letters and signatures. In addition, members pay monthly dues of $66.09. At the option of the member, the monthly fee may be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly.

Intermediate Membership: To qualify you must be at least 21 years of age and less than 30 years of age. There is no initiation fee for Intermediate Membership. And the New Member Application must be submitted with the Sponsor letters and signatures. Intermediate members must pay the $396.00 dues annually.

All members are charged an additional $5.00 per month piling fee to ensure there are funds available when pilings (the posts which hold up the club) need to be replaced.

Bar, Galley, and Club Purchases. In addition to the monthly dues each member's signal number/account is billed for monthly galley, bar, and club purchases. (There is no minimum spending limit at MPYC.)